Relevance of CE marking for home appliances

Dear Sir or Madam,

on behalf of BSH Hausgeräte GmbH we confirm that within the European Union the CE marking is compulsory for home appliances. The CE marking confirms the compliance with the relevant legal requirements e.g. for product safety, electromagnetic compatibility, restriction of certain hazardous substances and for ecodesign requirements. The CE marking indicates the fact that the manufacturer has assessed the conformity and holds the evidence to support this in the event this is requested from the authorities.

We confirm that all electric and electronic home appliances bearing BSH brands for supply within the European Union bear the CE marking.

We trust that this document is sufficient for your request.

Yours faithfully,

BSH Hausgeräte GmbH
