- / Succession to the CEO position to be announced in due course

Munich, April 26, 2022 (BSH) – Carla Kriwet, CEO and Chairwoman of the Board of Management of BSH, has decided to leave the company for personal reasons effective April 30, 2022, to continue her professional career outside the Bosch Group.

Gerhard Dambach, Chief Financial Officer and Member of the BSH Board of Management since 2019, will assume CEO tasks in addition to his other duties on an interim basis until further notice.

Christian Fischer, Deputy Chairman of the Board of Management of Robert Bosch GmbH and Chairman of the Supervisory Board of BSH, thanks Carla Kriwet for her engagement: "Carla has led BSH extremely successfully through the difficult phase of the pandemic and the numerous associated challenges, and has furthermore provided many new impulses. We regret her decision and wish her all the best for the future."

Carla Kriwet explains: "I am leaving BSH for personal reasons after very successful and delightful years to take up a new challenge outside the company in the future. I would like to thank all my colleagues for their close and always trustful cooperation, and I am leaving in the certainty that BSH is excellently equipped for the future after our two record years."

The successor to the CEO position will be announced in due course.
